

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 9TH, 2010

SGI-USA

Culture of Peace Distinguished Speaker Series

Welcomes

Rachel Mayanja

United Nations Assistant Secretary-General
Special Adviser on Gender Issues and the Advancement of Women

Speaking on:

“Promoting International Peace and Security:
the Importance of Security Council Resolution 1325 (2000)”

A national of Uganda, Ms. Mayanja, mother of three, obtained law degree from Makerere University and Masters from Harvard Law School. Her profound experience coupled with her educational and on the ground operational work for the United Nations has qualified her as the Secretary General’s Special Adviser on Gender Issues and the Advancement of Women, especially in the areas of women, peace and security.

SGI-USA NY CULTURE CENTER

7 EAST 15 STREET, NYC

TIME: LECTURE 7:30PM-8:30PM

BUDDHIST EVENING PRAYER 7:00PM-7:15PM

