

Culture of Peace

Distinguished Speakers Series

Why Peace Is Possible And How We Can Achieve It.

4 pm, Saturday, January 15, 2011
At the Culture of Peace Resource Center
606 Wilshire Blvd., Santa Monica, CA 90401

Paul Chappell
Peace Leadership Director
Nuclear Age Peace Foundation

“Like most Americans, I grew up thinking that peace was a naïve dream. In my talk, I will explain how I learned – at West Point and in the military – that peace is possible, and how we can take steps toward achieving it. I will also explain what waging peace means and why, in the nuclear age, it is required for survival.”

Paul Chappell, Peace Leadership Director, Nuclear Age Peace Foundation

Paul K. Chappell graduated from West Point in 2002. He served in the army for seven years, was deployed to Baghdad in 2006, and left active duty in November 2009 as a Captain. He is the author of Will War Ever End?: A Soldier's Vision of Peace for the 21st Century and The End of War: How Waging Peace Can Save Humanity, Our Planet, and Our Future. He lives in Santa Barbara, California, where he is serving as the Peace Leadership Director for the Nuclear Age Peace Foundation (www.wagingpeace.org). He is working on his third book, Peaceful Revolution: How We Can Create the Future Necessary for Humanity's Survival, and he speaks throughout the country to colleges, high schools, veterans groups, churches, and activist organizations.
