

Sensei, For You

Lyrics by Brian Potter

Music by Wayne Green

Through your eyes, we see the dream unfold.

In your words, we hear the thunder roll.

Each day we seek your wisdom,
as our voyage begins anew.

Hurry home, hurry home,
we're calling for you.

Sensei, we're waiting

We're reaching to touch your heart.

We're ready to play our part
in your great dream.

All our tomorrows
are shiny and new.

We'll fight forever,
Sensei, for you.

By your side, we strive in unity.

Far and wide, so all the world can see.

With bold determination,
hopeful hearts, and joyful tears,
we'll go on -- ever on through all of our years.

Sensei, we're waiting

We're reaching to touch your heart.

We're ready to play our part
in your great dream.

All our tomorrows
are shiny and new.

We'll fight forever,
Sensei, for you.

We'll fight forever,
Sensei, for you.
