SGI-USA launched new social media initiatives and programs to provide additional resources for members amid the continued spread of COVID-19.

- World Tribune Newsletter: A weekly newsletter highlighting new and expanded contents of SGI-USA publications and social media.
- “How Buddhists Create Hope” Instagram videos: Inspirational stories about members manifesting courage and hope through the A-B-C Campaign (Abundant daimoku, Buddhist study and Connecting life-to-life).
- SGI-USA Instagram account: Content is updated daily with members’ experiences, photos, videos and Buddhist concepts.

The Sources of SGI-USA’s Operating Funds in 2019

- Member Contributions
- Bookstore/Subscriptions
- FNCC Conference Income
- Other Income

SGI-USA Structure

The SGI-USA is an independent, religious nonprofit organization, registered under Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code. As such, all contributions are tax-deductible to the donor, as allowed by law.

Oversight Practices

The SGI-USA’s Board of Directors oversees operations and reviews financial statements. The 13 board members bring a variety of professional expertise to their responsibilities. The SGI-USA also undergoes a yearly independent audit of its business affairs to affirm that secure procedures are protecting and accurately accounting for members’ contributions. Our auditor is Moss Adams LLP, a leading accounting and auditing firm. For more information, visit sgi-usa.org/ogiusa-governance.

Thank you again for your heartfelt support to advance kosen-rufu in America in this Year of Advancement and Capable People!